

Japan-Australia Symposium on Plant Sciences for Agriculture

Date 19-20 January 2012.

Venue Grand Hall, Faculty of Agriculture,
Hokkaido University, Sapporo Japan.

Concept

This international symposium will feature scientists from Australia and Japan, and will showcase exciting plant basic research with potential to benefit agriculture.

<http://www.agr.hokudai.ac.jp/JAS2012/>

Registration

Attendance = free (pre-registration requested)
Banquet = 4,000 yen (students 2,500 yen)

Key Dates

Deadline for abstract submission / 28 December 2011
Pre-registration deadline / 12 January 2012

Symposium Speakers

■ Koh Aoki
(Osaka Prefecture University, Japan)

■ Masayoshi Kawaguchi
(National Institute for Basic Biology, Japan)

■ Junpei Takano
(Hokkaido University, Japan)

■ Derek Goto
(Hokkaido University, Japan)

■ Robyn Overall
(Sydney University, Australia)

■ Francois Feugier
(Hokkaido University - mathematical biology)

■ Chris Helliwell
(CSIRO Plant Industry, Australia)

■ Iain Searle
(Australian National University, Australia)

■ Toshiro Ohashi
(Hokkaido University - structural biology)

■ Tetsuya Higashiyama
(Nagoya University, Japan)

■ Ken Shirasu
(RIKEN Plant Science Center, Japan)

■ Yoshikazu Tanaka
(Hokkaido University - microfluidics, bioMEMS)

■ Mike Jones
(Murdoch University, Australia)

Organisers & Contact

Chair: Derek Goto (Hokkaido University)
email: derek@res.agr.hokudai.ac.jp
co-organised with:
International Committee of the Japanese Society of Plant Physiologists (JSPP)

Supported by

Hokkaido University
Tenure-track Program

Japanese Society of Plant Physiologists

Faculty of Agriculture
Hokkaido University